

KRISTIAN GERHARD JEBSEN OG JANTZENS FOND

The purpose of Kristian Gerhard Jebsen og Jantzens Fond is to support Norwegian, Swedish and Finnish lawyers who wish to acquire improved qualifications for practising maritime law through academic research or practical legal experience outside the Nordic countries.

The size of the scholarship may vary. The intention this year is to award scholarships in amounts up to NOK 300.000.

The scholarships may be awarded to support trainee assignments in New York and/or London.

The New York based law firm Holland & Knight LLP offers a trainee assignment for the period of September 2012 through May 2013. Monthly remuneration from the firm is USD 4,000 (after tax about USD 3,200). The work will be varied, with focus on charter party problems, marine insurance and ship financing.

In London we may assist in arranging a trainee assignment with one of the leading maritime law firms.

Written application with CV, documentation of studies and work, including a description of how you would like to use the scholarship, should be sent by e-mail to post@nordisk.no, att.: Frode Grotmol or by post to Nordisk Skibsrederforening.

Application deadline: 31 January 2012
